Summer Institutes of Learning:
Enrich & Renew Your Ministry

New York Theological Seminary is a diverse and inclusive community of learning grounded in biblical witness and Christian tradition, with a historic urban focus. The Seminary prepares women and men for faith-based ministries in the city and throughout the world.

Values Statement
• NYTS is diverse and inclusive; it is evangelical, ecumenical, and increasingly multifaith
• NYTS is a rigorously intellectual community of learning with a commitment to academic excellence
• Grounded in the biblical witness, NYTS continues the heritage of Biblical Seminary in New York
• Led by the Spirit in response to the call of Jesus Christ, NYTS is faithful to the Christian tradition as it grows to serve the broader religious world
• NYTS educates leaders whose ministries are relevant to the life and work of the global urban world.

Learning Outcomes
Graduates of NYTS from all programs will be able to demonstrate
• competence in biblical and theological reflection that is faithful to one’s own tradition, dynamic in its articulation, and relevant to contemporary intercultural and multifaith contexts
• the ability to identify, design, and put into practice diverse and inclusive models of ministry to achieve personal, ecclesial and social transformation and reconciliation
• the ability to engage in critical reflection that fosters spiritual formation and renewal of individuals, faith-based communities, cities and the world.

Continuing Education and Partner Church cost: $50 / credit
Courses are open to clergy and other religious leaders who are seeking continuing education opportunities, as well as members of a Partner Church seeking to enhance their leadership skills.

A “Partner Church” is any church or other religious community that has supported the Seminary over the past several years through a gift or in-kind contribution.

Enrollment may be limited for some courses.
Continuing Education Units are available upon request at the completion of each course.

For more information, contact the Registrar’s Office at Lbumgardner@nyts.edu
