“I learned that while we may have many of our congregation that know the mission of the church – we need to work at having them invested in carrying out the mission of the church.”

Current Student; Minister of Community Outreach

“I learned that partnerships through innovative strategies are essential to community outreach and growth.”

Alumni, Elder

“I learned that while we may have many of our congregation that know the mission of the church – we need to work at having them invested in carrying out the mission of the church.”

Current Student; Minister of Community Outreach

“I learned of the importance of innovative thinking.”

Friend, Layperson

“I learned that the advantage of partnerships can be beneficial in the growth and development of the church.”

Current Student, Minister